

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF DELAWARE

NOKIA CORPORATION and NOKIA INC.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

INTERDIGITAL COMMUNICATIONS
CORPORATION and INTERDIGITAL
TECHNOLOGY CORPORATION,

Defendants.

C.A. No. 05-16-JJF

PLAINTIFFS' OBJECTIONS TO THE DECEMBER 1, 2006 DECISION OF THE SPECIAL MASTER

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 53(g), Nokia Corporation and Nokia Inc. (collectively “Nokia”) hereby files these Objections to the Decision of Special Master Seitz issued on December 1, 2006. As fully set forth in Nokia’s Brief in Support, filed contemporaneously herewith, the Special Master erred, and his Decision should be vacated, because the Decision (i) enters a partial stay of discovery without a balancing of the equities that must be considered under the law of this Circuit; and (ii) declares as subject to arbitration Nokia’s right to seek discovery and examine witnesses regarding documents produced in this case.

Accordingly, for the reasons set forth in Nokia’s Brief in Support, the Special Master erred in staying discovery in this case, and his Decision should be vacated.
